11. Mr. Lin wanted to put a table next to his sofa. But later he thought a lamp would be better. However, the moment he stood in front of the lamps in the mall, he changed his mind again. "A chair is what I want," he thought to himself.
Question: In the end, which of the following item did Mr. Lin put next to his sofa?
(A) A table.
(B) A lamp.
(C) A chair.
12. John had an interview today and he took it very seriously. He thus set out earlier from home to take a bus there. Everything went well until the bus broke down in the middle of the road. He decided to get off and take a taxi at once, but unluckily, there weren't any at all. He was thirty minutes late for the interview even though he had left home earlier.
Question: What would John most likely say at the beginning of the interview?
(A) Something came up on my way here.
(B) The bus arrived late and there wasn't a taxi, either.
(C) It took me thirty minutes more to be prepared for the interview.
13. M: I don't think we should spend that much on a television.
F: Not much at all. We watch it every day and for many years. Think about it.
M: I still think we should shop around to get the best buy.
Question: Why doesn't the man buy the TV right now?
(A) It's expensive.
(B) They don't really need it.
(C) He likes another one more.
14. M: Just put it in the refrigerator and leave it.
F: How would I know when it is done?
M: Come back later after forty-five minutes.
F: And then it's done?
M: Simple. Check the color. If the color is still light, leave it in the refrigerator for another forty-five minutes. If the color turns dark, it is done.
F: But... it's brown. It's already dark.
Question: What might the man and the woman be doing?
(A) Frying an egg.
(B) Making a pie.
(C) Eating chocolate.

15. M: I'll say Sabrina. She did well in her interview.
F: Francesca is no less good.
M: But she didn't do well on the math test.
F: If that's so, I'll say Margaret. She did well both in the interview and on the tests.
M: Don't forget she doesn't have any work experience.
F: She will get one from here.
M: Well, then. The decision's been made.
Question: Who do the man and the woman choose?
(A) Sabrina.
(B) Francesca.
(C) Margaret.

16. F: Is this your red pen or mine?
M: I'm not sure. I put mine right there on the table. Was it on the table?
F: Yes, it was, but I put mine on the table, too.
M: Were there two red pens on the table?
F: I don't think so. I only saw one.
Question: Whose red pen is this?
(A) The man's.
(B) The woman's.
(C) We don't know.

17. F: Sorry. I didn't mean it.
M: Of course you didn't. You didn't mean it for the thousandth time.
F: Do you have to sound like that?
M: What? I said nothing.
Question: What might the man and the woman be talking about?
(A) The man is not happy about his work.
(B) The woman broke something again.
(C) The man finds it hard to make money.

18. F: We'll have pork for dinner.
M: Pork again? We've had pork for dinner every night for a week.
F: We have to finish the pork in the refrigerator first.
M: I miss beef. I miss fish. I miss everything except pork.
F: So do I. Now, wash your hands and come here to help.
M: Can we not have pork tomorrow? Let's say beef.
F: As long as you finish all the pork tonight.
M: How is that possible?
Question: What will the man and the woman have for dinner tomorrow?
(A) Beef.
(B) Fish.
(C) Pork.

19. F: We need milk.

M: I got it. I'm worried about the eggs.

F: John got them.

M: Yes, but where is he?

F: He's on his way. I think bread is the real problem.

M: Do we have it already?

F: I don't think so.

M: Alright. Check again what else is missing, and tell me where the closest supermarket is.

Question: Why does the man want to know where the closest supermarket is?

(A) He is going to buy milk there.

(B) He is coming from the supermarket.

(C) He is going there for bread.

20. M: Hi, Sarah!

F: Frank? Hi! How've you been?

M: Good. Is Andy home?

F: He's gone to Japan and won't be back until Sunday.

M: Alright. Please tell him I called.

F: Sure. Anything else?

M: Well,... I'll tell him myself when he gets back.

Question: What do we learn from the conversation?

(A) Sarah is in Japan.

(B) Frank will be back on Sunday.

(C) Andy is not at home.
